Final Viewing

Her Journey

Don't think of her as gone away, her journey's just begun.

Life holds so many facets,
this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting,
from the sorrow and the tears.

In a place of warmth and comfort,
where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living,
in the hearts of those she touched.

For nothing loved is ever lost,
and she was loved so much.

Obituary

Michelle Denise Ware, affectionately known as "Chocolate", was born October 22, 1968 to the union of the late Robert Harris and Milridge Ware-Harris in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Being the youngest of six siblings, Michelle was often influenced by her family to be a loving, caring woman with a hustling spirit. She loved to host and go to family gatherings. Michelle was also known to make her famous banana pudding we all loved so much. She was always giving her time to others, and she incorporated that into her motherhood. As a mother she was always generous, loving and kind.

Michelle attended Crooked Oak Elementary and Middle School, she graduated from Del City High School. After high school she went on to become a Certified Nursing Assistant. Michelle had such a genuine passion for looking after others. She went on the work in food services. She was so great at her job; she became the manager. Her customers loved to see her and would always request her "bomb tea".

Michelle was preceded in death by both grandparents Mama and Papa Tubbs, her parents The Harris', three siblings Sandra "Sand", John "Doc", and Sceelia "Cici", her two grandchildren Dy'Nisha and Keland Jr.

To cherish her memory, she leaves behind fiancé Mark Anderson, her children Darlisha Ware, Keland Ware, Markesse and Claudia Thomas, Mario Meadows, eight grandchildren, sister Gwendolyn Ware and brother Richard Harris, and lastly a host of family and friends who love her.

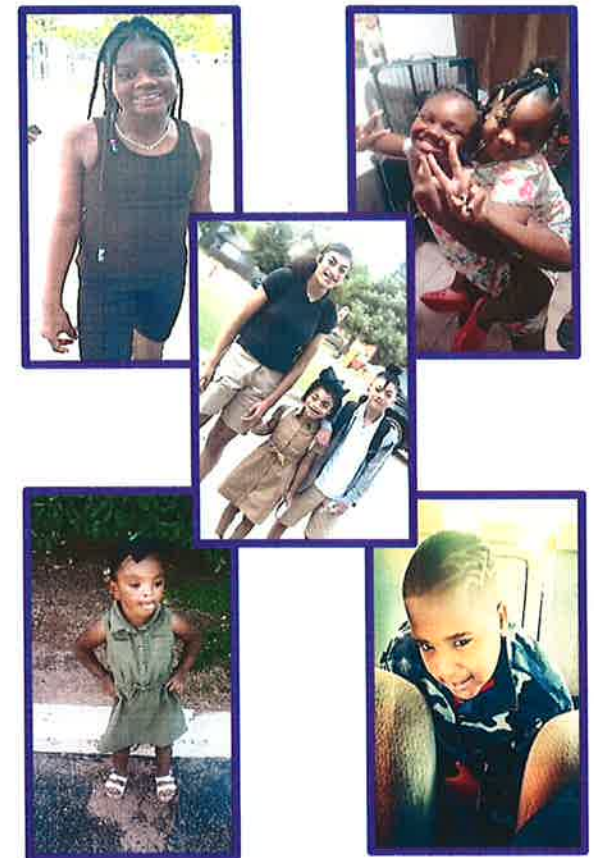

Michelle was a devoted mother, grandmother, and a true friend that will be deeply missed but dearly remembered!

God's garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.
