Obituary

Leslie Lambeth entered this world September 16, 1946 to Hugie Lambeth and Vonda Lambeth, both preceded him in death.

He leaves with loving memories his beautiful quietness and love, his wife Mary Peterson-Lambeth; children: Steven Lambeth (Kemberlie)), Rosalind Pittman, Jacqueline Hill (Davon), Duane Peterson (Virginia), Michelle Williams, Chris Lambeth (Kim), Candice Lambeth; his grandchildren, several great grandchildren, relatives, friends, many special people in his life: Rebecca Smith, Leo and Vickie Williams, Clara and Raymond Hayes; a host of the Lambeth family in the Newalla, Oklahoma area.

Leslie was a quiet man, always with a sharp mind, quick wit, saying mainly was, "You can use me, but don't misuse me, always hold your end of the stick."

Leslie worked at Western Electric for awhile then worked for years as a Oklahoma City Fireman.

He leaves each of us who enjoyed the time with Leslie giving each good memories.

MY HUSBAND - IT WAS OUR MOTTO:

You, Me, We, and Us
We are the Two Kissing Fishes
My last Love.

- Mary

Leslie

You gave the true meaning of love. You're quietness was bright with happiness and quiet wit saying, "You can use me, but don't misuse me, always hold your end of the stick."

You gave me the true meaning of love, yesterday, today and all future days to come.

We gave trueness to each other. You gave me lessons of all you had, smiles, happiness, travels and places never to have gone to and some not and repeat in my sad times. I know you are still with me, holding me and wiping away my tears.

All of us knew the quiet man, so hold on to his memories.

*Love Your Wife,
Mary
