Obituary

Ronisha “RonRon” Bowie was born on October 20, 1971, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Claudette “Cookie” Bowie and Ronald Harnsberry. From a toddler to the age of six, she was met with many health challenges but managed to fight through them all with the love of a strong mother and family. She had definitely defied all of the odds that were stacked against her. From the very moment that her baby sister was born, her entire life changed and she grew to become a natural caregiver, fighter, and The Boss. As a child, her mom kept her busy to encourage her independence and social skills. She received her entire education through the Mid-Del School District, graduating from Del City High School, Class of ‘93 as a Special Eagle.

Ronisha worked 18 years at Reliant Living Center. She competed in Special Olympics, from an early age to the beginning of her adult years, where she won several Trophies and Medals. She was given the chance to attend several Make Promises Happen Camps and be a part of the Tim Tebow, Defying All Odds Prom, 3 years in a row. She will be sorely missed by everyone that was blessed to be a part of her life.

Being in her home daily with her mom, sister, nephew, dad Rickey, and her dog CoCo is what brought her the most joy. Everyday was a party in this home filled with love, family and friends. Her favorite past times were spent “being in” and “telling everybody’s business (because she is GROWN),” working in her puzzle books, and making daily video calls to her loved ones (Lee Bowie, Larry Gaines, Aunts: Quita, Dinky, Rosie, Karen, Germaine, and her two special babies, Jeremiah Jones and Ray Ray Bowie). Last but not least, Ronisha knew GOD, and knew how to pray in her own special way, for she would call on her personal prayer warrior, Aunt Nette, to read the Bible with her.

Ronisha is preceded in death by her grandparents, Claude Sr., and Lupe Bowie, Maurice and Betty Harnsberry; her aunts: Yvonne Brown and Ronda Harnsberry; her uncles: Claude Jr., Benito, Ricardo Bowie, and Richard Harnsberry. She leaves to cherish her parents, Cookie Bowie and Rickey Byrd, and Ronald Harnsberry; her brothers: Christopher Hicks, Terrell Harp, Tige Russell and LaRon Webber; her sisters: Shunta Rose, Valerie Jackson and the baby of them all, Raquel Bowie; her nephews: De’Ronyel Adamson, Steven Gilchrist, Shavar Gilchrist and Evaughn Ferguson; as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, wonderful hospital staff, and brother-in-love, Nick Burnett.

Acknowledgment From The Family

The family of Ronisha Bowie would like to thank you for your kindness and concerns during this difficult time. Every act of love expressed has truly meant so much. Rather it was a friendly smile or just a simple hug, just know that when RonRon added Bowie to your name. It meant that you were family to her.
