Obituary

Matthew Brendon Edmond was the second child born to Sheldon Sr. and Denise Sanders Edmond on March 27, 1992 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Matthew attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and graduated from John Marshall High School in 2010. While at John Marshall, he also attended Francis Tuttle Technology Center. As a result of his career training at Francis Tuttle, Matthew won the First Place Award for Personal Computer (PC) servicing and troubleshooting at the State Leadership Conference of the Business Professional of America. His First Place win at the state level earned him a spot at the National Competition in Los Angeles, California. Matthew was serious about his chosen vocation and he earned many Microsoft Certifications.

Matthew had many and varied interests. He tried his hand at basketball (hated it), Parkour (loved it), and biking. He especially enjoyed reading and discussing subjects ranging from literary works on philosophy to abstract thinking to complex Computing and Networking Design. It was the latter that really captivated Matt. It seemed to come easy to him and he was good at it. In fact, after graduating from high school, he and some friends created a start-up company. Matt wrote several thought-provoking articles on social media platforms. His interest in music began at an early age, and he was adept with the piano and guitars. He was an avid firearms enthusiast, practiced regularly, and enjoyed vigorous and heated discussions about home/personal security options.

At an early age, Matthew was baptized and accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior at People's Church under the leadership of Pastor Herbert Cooper in Oklahoma City.

Matthew was preceded in death by his paternal and maternal grandparents: Jessie Lee Edmond, Sr., Jerry Lee James-Edmond, Charles "Bucket" Sanders and Willie Mae Mitchell-Gaines.

Matthew leaves to celebrate his life and to cherish his memories, his parents Sheldon Sr. and Denise Edmond; brother Sheldon II, sister Imani Edmond, special aunt, Nannette Thomas; his close friend, Ian Aldridge; and numerous great aunts, great uncles, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

WHEN GOD COMFORTED ME

©Colleen Mclean

From heaven he was delivered
As a baby unto you,
When God said to me softly
I'm trusting you to do
Everything that's needed
to nurture and to love.
He's your little angel
Sent from me above.
You see. . .spirits cannot be
Held, hugged, or kissed.
The body that was his vessel
Is what you'll surely miss,
But his spirit that I shared with you
On that one special day,
That is what I promise
To never take away.
So he is back in heaven now
The earth was not his place.
He taught you all he could
about dignity and grace,
So as you grieve and weep
To see him once again,
I promise he's waiting here
When you get to heaven.
