Obituary

Donte L. Wright was born December 19, 1983 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Melva J. Wright. He attended Garden Oaks Elementary School, Hoover Middle School, and graduated from Classen SAS High School.

At a young age, Donte faced some disability challenges but that didn't keep him from growing up to become a very bright and smart young man. He resided with his mother, Melva and lived a long and healthy and happy life. He attended a Special Olympic year and enjoyed it. He won a couple of medals which was so joyful.

Donte attended different churches which he enjoyed going. He loved going places with his mother, Melva to different places, such as the mall, grocery shopping.

Donte celebrated his last birthday and Christmas until his father called him home. He leaves behind his mother, Melva Wright; two sisters: Eldasha Wright and Tamara Wright; his aunt, Edna Smith and uncle Charles Smith; and a host of cousins.

Donte is preceded in death by his grandmother, Mayok Wright; great grandfather, Kahoma Wright; great grandmother, Kinnie Wright; and cousin, Tyrone Holloway.

Recessional

I know your hearts are heavy, and all your emotions are high. . .
I know you've probably asked God, over and over, why?!
I know no one wants to accept, a loved one leaving this earth . . .
Especially a mother, saying good-bye to a son that she gave birth. . .
But Moma dry your eyes, and know that I'm alright. . .
I went to bed the other night and woke up in paradise. . .
God greeted me at the gates with His arms open wide!
He told me that He loved me, and was so glad to see my smile!
Everyone here is just like me, I have friends everywhere!
We sing, and play and run all day, and no one stops to stare!
I told God that I miss you too, and hope you'll be alright. . .
He promised me, we'll look after you, and always be by your side!
So, hug my sisters and all my family, and tell them this isn't the end. . .
I'll save each of you a spot in Heaven for when I see your faces again!
