Eugene Frederick King, Jr. was born November 30, 1945 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Eugene F., Sr. and Mildred M. King. He was the third of six children.

He accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age. He was baptized by Rev. S.S. Fairly at Fairview Baptist Church in Oklahoma City. He remained a faithful member until joining another congregation in Oklahoma City. Eugene's faith journey led him to several local churches where he served in the Youth Ministry. At the time of his passing Eugene was a member of New Beginnings Community Church, Spencer, Oklahoma where he served as Deacon and Treasurer.

Eugene received his elementary and secondary education in Oklahoma City, graduating from Douglass High School in 1964. He attended Oklahoma City University in Oklahoma City, OK, graduating in 1968 with a Bachelor of Arts in Education. After his graduation he married Pamela Holder and they were blessed with two children, Christopher and Anjanette. Later Eugene received his Master of Education from Central State University.

During his career with Oklahoma City Public Schools, he served as a teacher, counselor and administrator. In Eugene's professional educational career, he was dedicated to serving children and improving opportunities for them. Many of his colleagues considered him as a loving and kind man, a servant leader and an educator that cared about and was deeply committed to Oklahoma City's inner youth.

After retirement, Eugene enjoyed fishing and spending time with his grandchildren. He also enjoyed traveling and seeing the world with his life-partner, Karon Jeter. Eugene enjoyed helping and working with others. He helped whenever and wherever he could be of service.

Teacher's Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Enable me to teach wisdom,
For I help to shape the mind.
