

God Saw You

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to Me."
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain.
I could not wish you back,
To suffer that again.

Obituary

Kimberly Sandy Wilson was born on May 30, 1974, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was one of three children. She graduated from John Marshall High School. She received her Bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma and her Masters from Southeastern Oklahoma State University.

Kimberly was employed at Tinker Air Force Base where she worked as a Logistics Management Specialist. She was a loving mother and sister. She was vibrant and outgoing. Kim loved to travel, and she truly loved her family and friends. She was always willing to help anyone in need.

Kimberly leaves behind to cherish her memory, her mother, Lizzie Sandy; two children: Karyln Wilson and Marlon Wilson Jr.; one brother, Dr. Reginald Sandy (Karen); one sister, Rena Sandy Jones (Larry); and several other nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

We loved Kim, but God loved her best.
