Acknowledgement

The family of Lhazmon McCain would like to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to many relatives, friends and colleagues who have been a source of comfort, strength and support. Also those who have shown their kindness either by flowers you've sent, cards, telephone calls, visits, and most of all your prayers during the loss of our loved one. It is our prayer that you be blessed, encouraged and may the Almighty God Jehovah bless and preserve you.

Life Reflections

Lhazmon was born January 18, 1987. He was the 4th child of Nelle McCain Jones.

Lhazmon was born to the proud parents Nelle McCain Jones, and Walter Gipson.

Lhazmon loved spending time with his family. He always had a smile on his face when he greeted us, and would greet us with open arms so he could embrace us. Lhazmon also loved children and always wanted to know how he could help.

Lhazmon was very loving, caring, creative, very humble, and he was very knowledgeable of the Bible. He loved his God, Jehovah.

Lhazmon liked playing jokes and drawing. He was also very good in writing, poetry, and rapping. He was truly an artist.

Lhazmon got baptized in 2015 as a Jehovah's Witness, because he knew that Jehovah God's words are true. He attended school at Midwest City High School, and he earned a certificate as an electrician.

Preceding him in death is his brother, Marcus McCain, and father, Walter Gipson.

Lhazmon is survived by his son, Jeremiah Franklin, his mother, Nelle McCain Jones, sister, Alondra Mitchell, brothers, Donald Frazier, Denarvus McCain, Quinthum Gipson, and grandmother, Ollie McCain, all of Oklahoma City, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

LHAZMON

L Living on limited time in this lifetime we live in.

H Having the honor to have known such an incredible human being.

A And from this life to the next.

Z Zealous to eventually see you again.

M Moment to moment, day by day.

O On borrowed time, by faith that's blind.

N Nevertheless, I'll never forget the love ones I lost, and left behind.

Poem By Quinthum Gipson

I Thought of You With Love Today

But that is nothing new.
I thought of you yesterday.
And days before that too.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories.
And a picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake.
With which I'll never part.
Jehovah has me in his keeping.
And always will.
I have you in my heart.
And forever will.
I miss you uncle.
And always will.

He Will Call

Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.

All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.

If a man should die, can he live again?

Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.

They will live at his command.

For he will have a longing

For the work of his own hand.

So have faith, and do not wonder,

For our God can make us stand.

And we will live forever,

As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,

Will never be forsaken.

All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,

From death he will awaken.

Then we'll come to see all that life can be:

Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.

They will live at his command.

For he will have a longing

For the work of his own hand.

So have faith, and do not wonder,

For our God can make us stand.

And we will live forever,

As the work of his own hand.

Life Without End – At Last!

John 3:16

1. Can you see with your mind's eye,
Peoples dwelling together?

Sorrow has passed. Peace at last!

Life without tears or pain.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!

You too can have a part.

Live for the day when you'll say,

"Life without end, at last!"

2. In those days all will be young,

All at peace with Jehovah.

Troubles are gone, from now on,

No need to weep or fear.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!

You too can have a part.

Live for the day when you'll say,

"Life without end, at last!"

3. Paradise all will enjoy

As we sing of God's glory.

Long as we live, we will give

Honor and praise to God.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!

You too can have a part.

Live for the day when you'll say,

"Life without end, at last!"
