In Loving Memory

Tommy Lee Ingram was born June 12, 1958 to Patricia and Reuben Ingram in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Tommy transitioned to his homegoing on February 8, 2023 at the age of 64. He grew up as the man of the house, the Boss.

Tommy attended the Oklahoma City Public schools and graduated from Southeast High School in 1976. He went on to the United States Army. In 1978, he worked several jobs in construction.

Tommy was preceded in death by his parents, Patricia and Reuben Ingram; his wife, Ruby; sister, Cynthia Ingram; two nephews, Andrew Ingram and Rodney Hennesey, and one niece, Dykisha Ingram.

Tommy was the oldest of ten children. He was the protector of the family and was always there for you if you were in trouble. He always had a smile on his face and as he use to say, "T-for Tough, I-for Incredible, and I am T. Lee." It didn't matter what he faced or what came his way.

Tommy Lee Ingram leaves to cherish his memory, six sisters and two brothers: Belinda Alexander, Laura Linzy, Pamela Triplet, Gaytra Rushing, Tonya Kay Arinwine, Latrice Washington, Reuben Ingram of Houston, Texas, and James Rushing of Dallas, Texas; three sons: Tommy Ingram Jr., Reuben Ingram and Genoy Ingram; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

A Much Loved Uncle

The day God called your name

It broke our hearts in two

But Heaven need an Angel

And the one he picked was you

I just wish He could have waited

And let you stay with me

But you have left memories in my heart

And that's where they'll always be

I just wish I could rewind the clock

Or make it turn real slow

I could have hugged you one more time

Before you had to go

No matter how much time will pass

I'll miss you everyday

Keep shining bright in Heaven

So you can light my way
