

Obituary

Roosevelt Hill entered life on January 28, 1943 to the family of Theodore Roosevelt Hill, Jr. and Mae H. Hubbard. He was the first of five children born to this union.

He was a military child and attended schools in Germany and Oklahoma City. He served with the 101st Airbourne Division as a Parachutist during the Vietnam conflict.

After his discharge, Roosey worked for a number of Transportation and Trucking Companies. He retired from Yellow Freight Company in 2003. From 2003 until his death, he experienced medical problems until his final home going on Sunday, September 19, 2010.

During his well years, Roosey was a good athlete playing sports during his school years and while he was in the army. He was a very enthusiastic fan when his playing days were over and he was loyal to the OU Sooners. Roosey loved children and never met a stranger.

Roosevelt's parents and one son, Ronnie preceded him in death. He leaves to celebrate his home going his loving and devoted wife of 25 years, Juanita; one brother and four sisters; his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He also leaves a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.