Obituary

Thompson, Betty Ann, departed this life on June 21, 2014, after a period of being ill. Betty was born on April 2, 1949 in Castle, Oklahoma, the fifth child of Fred and Cora (Grayson) Thompson.

Ms. Thompson attended the Prairie Bell Elementary School, 1956-1964. She attended Boley High School and subsequently went to Okemah High School where she graduated May, 1968. She then attended Central State University in Edmond, Oklahoma. She graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Science in 1972. She was within hours of completing an advance degree.

She joined the Prairie Spring Baptist Church at an early age. Betty truly loved the Lord and had numerous gifts. For example, a gifted Pianist, songist, melodist and had a soulful voice that she used for serving the Lord. She had a gift of encouragement and she never met a stranger and was kind to everyone. Additionally, she was a licensed Missionary. Her career began at OG&E where she worked for three years. She then worked for Wonder Bread Company for eleven years. She then began working for the Federal Aviation Administration as a Management Administrative Assistant and eventually became a Program Analyst where she worked for more than 25 years. She retired April, 2012. With all of her accomplishments, her most joy was her son and her grandchildren.

Ms. Thompson leaves her loving son, Tremain of Oklahoma City; grandchildren: Tremain Thompson, Jr., Autumn Symone Thompson-Graham, and Ezra James-Thompson. In addition, her mother, Cora Thompson-Wallace survives her; sisters and brother: Lena Thurston and her husband, George of Midwest City, Oklahoma; Bertha Stirling and her husband, Richard of West Roxbury, Massachusetts; Cora K. Colbert and her husband, Horace of Midwest City, Oklahoma; and Ted Thompson of Midwest City, Oklahoma. Her father, Fred; her sister, Sulean (Thompson) Johnson and her brother, Fred Jr. preceded her in death. Ms. Thompson leaves a large extended family and many, many friends.
