On Nov 6, 1953 in Wewoka, OK a gift of God was presented to Ophelia Davis/Burton & Cordell Burton in the form of a browning baby boy named Leova R. Davis. Leo was the 2nd oldest child of 10 children. He attended and graduated from Buther High School. After graduation He entered into the Military upon discharge of the Military he learned a skill of mechanic.. As a mechanic Leo worked for several mechanic shops. Leo was employed primarily as a mechanic but was a "Jack of All Trades." Leo was quite the Jokester keeping family, friends, neighbors and customers laughing. He then later married Jozetta Bullock were they later on conceived his last three children. Also one of his favorite phrases was "No Help is Better Than Help". Teaching his children to be independent as possible Leo was a son, a brother, a uncle, a dad, a papa and a friend to everyone he met. As independent as Leo was sickness quickly attacked his body in January. He fought many sickness with family by his side. He leaves to cherish his love and memory to 5 children; Daughter's-Sophia Bullock, Nakitha Bullock, Lisa Gilbreth; Sons-Don Douglas, Jeffrey Bennett, Randall Bullock. 9 Siblings-Cordell Davis, Larry Easley, Rickey Burton, Paul Burton, Tony Burton, Joedon Gordon, Ruth'Ann Burton/Griffis, Goloria Jean Townsend and Donna Burton. 15 grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews, friends and family. Gone on home before him includes his parents Ophelia Davis/Burton and Cordell Burton and sister Lafrancice Burton.
