

“His Life Story”...

Brent Ramone Cheadle was born September 21, 1959 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Mose and Bettye Cheadle. He was the oldest of two children. Brent began his formal education in Palo Alto, California and graduated from Woodside High School in 1977, he also studied business administration at Cañada College, Redwood City, California.

February 21, 1987, Brent married Carolyn Elam. This marriage was blessed with two sons. Brent worked for OG&E, Gilardi Foods and Pelco until his health declined.

Brent accepted Christ at a young age and was a faithful member at Church of God in Christ True Holiness in Palo Alto, California.

Brent loved to fish and rebuild motors for sport cars. He enjoyed watching movies and being on his computer. Most of all, spending time with his family.

Brent’s maternal and paternal grandparents, mother-in-law, and son, Terence Lamar Robinson Cheadle preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his special memories; his wife Carolyn Cheadle; two sons, Brandon Cheadle and Blake Cheadle; parents, Mose and Bettye Cheadle; one sister, Glenda Cheadle-Elliott (Darrell Sr.); one brother, Kenneth Cheadle (Sonya); father-in-law, Frank Elam; two sisters-in-law, Velora McDonald and Nila Elam; one brother-in-law, Chris Elam (Dahn); and a host of relatives and friends.
