Obituary

Schafter Antwine Jr. was born to elder Schafter Antwine Sr. and mother Theolimpa Antwine on August 31, 1948 in Nuyaka, Oklahoma. The family later moved to Spencer, Oklahoma where he grew up as a child.

He accepted Christ at an early age under the pastorate of the late Elder Kellis, First Church of God in Christ, Spencer, Oklahoma. He attended Dungee Elementary and Dungee High School. Schafter graduated in 1966, and began working at Tinker Air Force Base. He later was employed by Wilson Foods, Ralston Purina and the U.S. Postal Service where he retired. After retiring, he was employed by the City of Oklahoma City.

Schafter was united in marriage to Rosetta Antwine, the love of his life. He cherished his wife of 45 years.

Schafter attended People's Church and later joined Faith Tabernacle Church of God in Christ under the pastorate of his father the late Elder Schafter Antwine Sr. He later served under the leadership of his brother, Elder Henry Tyrone Antwine until his demise.

Schafter loved cooking, grilling, and hosting holiday dinners. He always invited family and friends to enjoy the feast. He also enjoyed singing. His favorite song was, "I don't know why I have to cry sometime."

Schafter is preceded in death by his parents, the late Elder Schafter Antwine Sr., mother, Theolimpa Antwine; two sisters, Eva Patricia Grant and Arnetta Antwine. He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife Rosetta Antwine; three daughters, Shavaughn Antwine, Tonja Grant (Raymond), Paulette McGill (Kenny); one son, Schafter Antwine III (Amanda); three sisters, Theolimpa (Chester), Coetta Cooper and Claudetta Deloney; three brothers, Bishop Antwine (Iola), Henry Antwine and Delbert Antwine (LeKenya); fourteen grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, one uncles, Willie Antwine (Irene); an aunt, Willie Mae Antwine; and a host of other relatives and friends.
