Obituary

Tinita Murray was born February 18, 1961 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to her parents, Onetia R. Murray (Bryant) and Reverend Joe E. Murray. She was the second of four children born to this union.

Tinita attended Oklahoma City and Millwood public schools. She graduated from Millwood High School in 1979. Tinita received her Bachelor and Masters degrees from the University of Central Oklahoma and a Masters degree from Langston University.

Tinita began her Christian education at St. John C.M.E. Church, Spencer, Oklahoma. She received her calling and was ordained in 2001 as a minister at the Greater Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Tinita began her path at Mt. Carmel and shared the Gospel of Jesus Christ everywhere she went.

While working in Indiana, she attended the Heartland Church in Fischer, Indiana. She became active in many Church ministries programs and was known for ability to effective pray.

As part of her journey, Tinita expanded her knowledge of Christianity by visiting sites is Israel and Italy.

Tinita worked for the Veterans Administration for more than 30 years at sites in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Indianapolis, Indiana, and Oakland California. On the job, she assisted veterans in obtaining services needed to enhance their civilian lives. She was active in planning and coordinating employee recognitions programs and other activities as needed.

Tinita Murray was a powerful visionary. She could see things that needed to be done and find ways to get them done. She encouraged and pushed everyone to be their best, and to strive for excellence. Tinita was a strong and courageous individual. She loved a challenge. She was always confident that she would be victorious. Whenever she was in doubt or when the challenge seemed to be too great, she would say, "I'll take it to The Father."

She was confident that the Lord would see her through any situation. When Tinita faced her last challenge, which was her health and she could not overcome it, she did not have to "Take it to The Father", because The Father came to her.

Tinita had a passion for travel. She visited many sites in this Country, such as, California, New York, Alaska, and Hawaii. She also travelled to the Bahamas, Israel, Italy, and Mexico.

Tinita is preceded in death by her parents Onetia R. and Reverend Joe E. Murray. She leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Joe Benito Murray, three sisters; Lahunda Obasuyi, Althea McKnight, and Felecia Butler; four brothers, Anthony Murray (Lydia), Mark Murray, Clarence Knight, and Richard Williamson (Lanecia). She also leaves nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends who share fond memories of Tinita.
