In Loving Memory

Kevin Maurice Williams was born in Oklahoma City, OK on November 7, 1966 to Janice S. Williams and Roger Starr, Sr. He moved to San Bernardino, CA in the 1970s where he and his sister, Kimberly, were raised by his grandmother, Mayzella Brawner.

Kevin was a talented athlete and excelled in football. He was a rare gem being a left-handed quarterback. Shortly after high school, Kevin joined the Navy where he served for eight (8) years. He went on to work for a major food conglomerate retiring after 20 years of service.

At 6'4" and 250 lbs., Kevin was a gentle giant. He was unendingly generous and sharing whatever he had whether it was a little or a lot. He loved children and was becoming active in his church, The Tabernacle of David. He was becoming more involved in service and enjoyed spending time with the neighbors, Pastors Shelia and Leroy Lewis and their family.

Kevin loved to cook and feed people, cooking the majority of meals for his family. He became a master of the Air Fryer. He was funny, stubborn, loved fast food, was a diehard OU fan and loved his chewing tobacco.

Kevin was a fiercely dedicated mama's boy who missed his mother dearly after her transition in May 2021. He was reunited with her on Friday, June 17, 2022.

He is survived by his three sons: Jamaal Williams, Kameron Williams and Kellen Williams; sister, Kim (Theran); grandmother, Mayzella Brawner; aunt, Barbara; nieces, Kairi and Shai Madison; nephew, Taori; grand-niece, Kennedy; a host of cousins and other relatives.

Kevin was a kind-hearted man who will surely be missed by those who knew and loved him. RIP

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love

But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past

So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart
